

Gordon Plant Positive visual phenomena – SOE Webinar

From 1991 to 2021 Dr Gordon Plant practiced as a National Health Service Consultant Neurologist in London, UK. He was on the staff of the National Hospital for Neurology and Neurosurgery, Queen Square, Moorfields Eye Hospital and the Medical Eye Unit of St Thomas' Hospital. He is now retired from clinical practice but remains active in teaching and research. He has authored more than 300 peer reviewed articles and has been interested in all aspects of the Neurology of Vision.