

Christina Vidinova, Environmental risk factors and their optimisation possibilities, SOE Webinar

Assoc. prof. Christina Vidinova is a head of the Department of Ophthalmology at the Military Medical academy of Sofia Bulgaria. She is a consultant at the Bulgarian- American Eye Hospital “Zrenie”, Sofia and a teaching lecturer at the Sofia University “St. Kliment Ohridski”.

Assoc. prof. Vidinova is a member of the executive board of the Bulgarian Society of Ophthalmology and an Editor in Chief of the Bulgarian magazine “Bulgarian Review of Ophthalmology”.

Assoc. prof. Vidinova is a former Marie Curie Fellowship holder at the University Eye Hospital Tubingen, Germany and an ISO/IFOS grant holder at the University Eye Clinic Ulm, Germany. Since 2005 is a member of German Ophthalmological Society. She attended the EuLDP class 2017 and after that became the SOE National board member for Bulgaria.

Her main field of interest is Medical Retina and especially AMD with approx. 66 publications on the topic.